WHAT IS BIG LITTLE BOOKS BATTLE (BLBB)?

BLBB is a book-based trivia tournament geared towards school children in the Greater Toronto Area (GTA) from grades 5 - 8.

Registered students will receive the link via email. All events are FREE OF CHARGE!

- BLBB Tournament Date: June 12, 2022 (11am - 2pm)

HOW CAN STUDENTS PARTICIPATE?

1

Register your child here: <https://www.biglittlebooks.ca/big-little-books-battle> (make sure to click on "Register Here").

2

We will arrange teams of 6-8 students.

3

Let the reading begin! There are 20 books covering multiple genres. Students can read as many as they want (but it's recommended to read all of them).

4

Help them prepare. We will hold weekly check-ins to discuss the books. We will send sample questions and talk about the books.

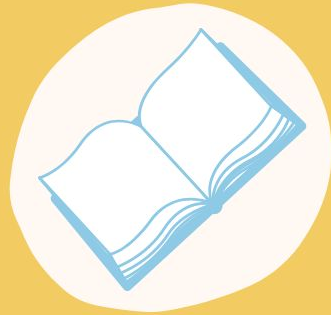

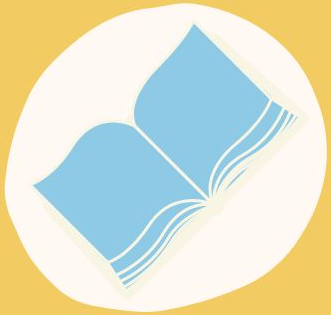

5

Tournament time! The breakdown of the tournament day is given here: <https://www.biglittlebooks.ca/s/BLBB-Schedule.pdf>

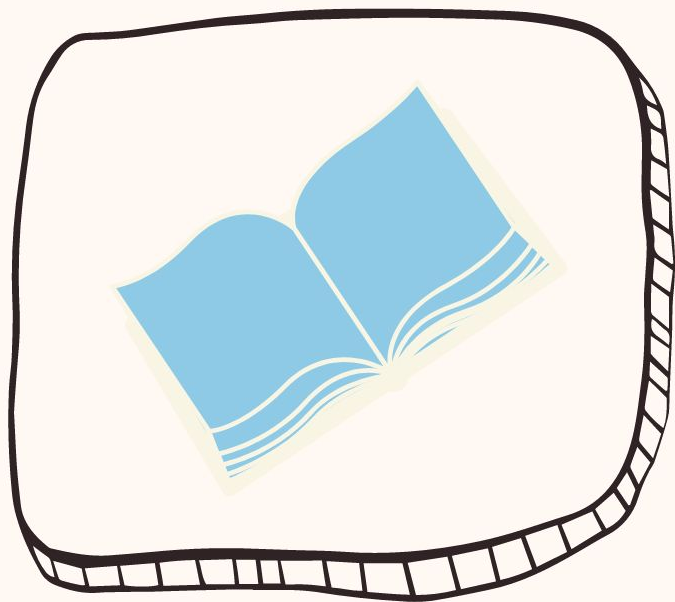

WHY BIG LITTLE BOOKS BATTLE (BLBB)?

In 2012, Statistics Canada found that 48% of Canadians between ages 16-65 failed to achieve proficiency in literacy at the high school level.

This has worsened during the COVID-19 pandemic, so we created Big Little Books, an organization aimed at promoting literacy among youth. Our mandate: to make reading fun and engaging. Hence, our first event is BLBB, as a collaboration with the Barrie Public Library.
